Dear Mr. Lloyd::

Enclosed is your client's new Ocean Transportation Intermediary ("OTI") license as identified above.

As a licensee, it is important that your client and its employees are familiar with the OTI regulations located at 46 CFR Part 515, Licensing, Financial Responsibility Requirements, and General Duties for Ocean Transportation Intermediaries. The regulations may be viewed at the Commission's website at www.fmc.gov. In particular, please note the following specific requirements:

1. Business must be carried out only under the name in which the license has been issued and the licensee's name and license number must be permanently imprinted on all stationery and billing forms. See 46 CFR § 515.31.
2. Any changes to information provided in the original license application must be reported to this Bureau within thirty (30) days, see 46 CFR § 515.12(e); also certain changes require Commission approval, see 46 CFR § 515.20.
3. Regulations governing freight forwarder compensation must be strictly adhered to. See 46 CFR §515.42.
4. As a freight forwarder, the licensee must perform freight forwarder duties in compliance with 46 CFR § 515.32.
5. As a non-vessel-operating common carrier ("NVOCC"), the licensee must comply with 46 CFR Part 520, Carrier Automated Tariff Systems.
6. Periodic renewal is required to maintain the license. Please refer to the Commission's Ocean Transportation Intermediaries (OTI) List at <https://www2.fmc.gov/oti/> for your renewal date. See 46 CFR §515.14.

It is important that licensees comply with the Shipping Act of 1984 and the Commission's regulations, as failure to do so could result in license revocation or suspension and/or significant monetary penalties. Please advise your client that the Commission conducts an audit program of OTI licensees to assist with and to monitor compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations. Should you or your client have any questions, please contact the industry analyst identified above.

Very truly yours,
